Responding to Reports

If a student reports an incident of interpersonal violence to you:

- Let student know incident must be reported.
- Encourage student to contact Campus Safety Services.
- Offer support and assist with (confidential) reporting.
- Provide specific information to Campus Safety: date, time, location and type of incident.
- Tell the student the importance of preserving evidence in the immediate aftermath of an incident. Ask them not to shower or launder clothing until they have been checked out at the hospital and/or by Campus Safety, as that may aid in the investigation.
- Inform student of the free counseling and support through Tuttleman Counseling Services, Wellness Resource Center, Student Health Services and Campus Safety Services.
Anti-Harassment, Including Sexual Harassment

• Temple is committed to creating and maintaining a workplace and educational environment, programs and activities free of unlawful discrimination and harassment.

• The Discrimination and Harassment Policy (Policy # 04.81.11) does not allow curtailment or censorship of constitutionally protected expression.

• Harassment is a form of discrimination and is based on the same protected classes as Temple’s non-discrimination statement.

• For more information on harassment, visit the Equal Opportunity Compliance site under the harassment resources tab.
Non Discrimination Policy

• Temple is committed to a policy of equal opportunity for all in every aspect of its operations.
• Discrimination is unlawful on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin/ancestry, age, disability, marital status, veteran status, gender identity and genetic information.
• For more information, visit the Office of Equal Opportunity Compliance site.
Conflict of Interest

- Employment of relatives ("nepotism") and consensual romantic relationships are prohibited within reporting relationships.
- Relationships between administrators and students where reporting relationship exists are prohibited.
- Relationships between faculty/academic advisors and students are prohibited.
- For more information, read the Employee Manual.
